IV. Long Answer Questions:
1. Write about the contribution of Drucker to management.
   Definition: According to Peter F. Drucker, “Management is a multipurpose organ that manages a business and manages manager, and manages worker and work”.

   Drucker stresses three jobs of management:
   - Managing a business
   - Managing manager and
   - Managing workers and work

   Peter Drucker’s Contribution to Management Theory:
   - Drucker taught that management is a liberal art and is about much more than productivity.
   - To be an effective manager, he/she must understand things like psychology, science, religion and the other things that go into the subject
   - Drucker observed that often managers would try to take charge of everything. Managers needed to delegate tasks to empower their employees.
   - His theories reflect how important business environments are and the opportunity that managers have to create positive change and progress in the workplace.

2. Explain the management process in detail.
   - A process is something that what a person does in the context of his individual duties and responsibilities assigned by her/his immediate higher authority.
   - A process indicates the dynamic nature of management.
   - Management is regarded as a social process because it is directly concerned with management of human resources
   - There are twin purposes of the management process:
     - Maximum productivity or profitability
     - Maximum human welfare and satisfaction
   - There are five process of management. They are:
     - Management is Co-ordination
     - Management is a process
     - Management is a purposive process
     - Management is a social process
     - Management is a cyclical process
3. Describe the principles of scientific management.
Principles of scientific management propounded by Taylor are:

1) Science, Not Rule of Thumb:
   - Rule of Thumb means decision taken by manager as per their personal judgments.
   - Decisions should be based on scientific enquire with cause and effect relationships.

2) Harmony, Not Discord:
   - It means that there should be complete change in the attitude and outlook of workers and management towards each other.

3) Mental Revolution:
   - Mental Revolution involves a change in the attitude of workers and the management towards each other.
   - Management as well as the workers should aim to increase the profits of the organization.

4) Cooperation, Not Individualism:
   - It lays stress on mutual cooperation between workers and the management.
   - Workers should be treated as integral part of organization and all important decisions should be taken after due consultation with workers.

5) Development of each and every person to his or her greatest efficiency and prosperity:
   - Providing training to the workers was considered essential in order to learn the best method developed through the use of scientific approach.
   - The work assigned to each employee should suit his/her physical, mental and intellectual capabilities.

4. Explain the principles of modern management.
The Father of Modern Management is Mr. Henry Fayol, and according to him there are 14 major principles of management which every manager has to practice for the success of the organization.

1) Division of Work:
   - According to this principle the whole work is divided into small tasks.
   - The specialization of the workforce according to the skills of a person, leads to specialization which increases the efficiency of labour.

2) Authority and Responsibility:
   - Authority means the right of a superior to give the order to his subordinates whereas responsibility means obligation for performance.

3) Discipline:
   - It is obedience, proper conduct in relation to others, respect of authority, etc.
   - It is essential for the smooth functioning of all organizations.

4) Unity of Command:
   - Each subordinate should receive orders and be accountable to one and only one superior.
   - Employee receives orders from more than one superior, it is likely to create confusion and conflict.

5) Unity of Direction:
   - All related activities should be put under one group and one manager.
   - There should be one plan of action for them.

6) Subordination of Individual Interest to Mutual Interest:
   - The management must put aside personal considerations and put company objectives firstly.
   - The interests of goals of the organization must prevail over the personal interests of individuals.

7) Remuneration:
   - Workers must be paid sufficiently as this is a chief motivation of employees and therefore greatly influences productivity.
   - The quantum and methods of remuneration payable should be fair, reasonable, rewarding of effort.
8) The Degree of Centralization:
   - The amount of power wielded with the central management depends on company size.
   - Centralization implies the concentration of decision making authority at the top management.

9) Line of Authority/Scalar Chain:
   - This refers to the chain of superiors ranging from top management to the lowest rank.
   - The principle suggests that there should be a clear line of authority from top to bottom linking all managers at all levels.

10) Order:
    - Social order ensures the fluid operation of a company through authoritative procedure.
    - Material order ensures safety and efficiency in the workplace.

11) Equity:
    - Employees must be treated kindly, and justice must be enacted to ensure a just workplace.

14) Esprit de Corps/Team Spirit:
    - Team spirit helps develop an atmosphere of mutual trust and understanding.
    - Team spirit helps to finish the task on time.

5. Discuss the implications of span of management.
   - The Span of Management refers to the number of subordinates who can be managed efficiently by a superior.
   - The manager having the group of subordinates who report him directly is called as span of management.
   - It has two implications:
     1. Influences the complexities of the individual manager’s job.
     2. Determine the shape or configuration of the organization.

Wide Span of Management:
   - It will be very difficult for a superior to manage a large number of subordinates at a time and also may not listen to all efficiently.
   - Number of managers gets reduced in the hierarchy, and thus, the expense in terms of remuneration is saved.
   - The subordinates feel relaxed and develop their independent spirits in a free work environment, where the strict supervision is absent.

Narrow span of Management:
   - Less number of subordinates under one superior, requires more managers to be employed in the organization.
   - It would be very expensive in terms of the salaries to be paid to each senior.

20. LIBERALIZATION, PRIVATIZATION AND GLOBALIZATION

II. Very Short Answer Questions:

1. State the branches of New Economic Policy.
   - Liberalization
   - Privatization
   - Globalization

2. What is Privatisation?
Privatization is the incidence or process of transferring ownership of a business enterprise, agency or public service from the government to private sector.

3. Mention any three disadvantages of Liberalisation.
   - Loss to domestic units
   - Increased dependence on foreign nations
   - Unbalanced development

4. Name the industries which are reserved for Public sector.
   - Atomic Energy
   - Defence aircraft and warships
   - Railway transport

5. Give any three advantages of Globalisation.
   - Increase in foreign collaboration
   - Expansion of market
   - Technological development

III. Short Answer Questions:

1. What do you mean by liberalisation?
   - Liberalization refers to laws or rules being liberalized, or relaxed, by a government.
   - Liberalization means relaxation of various government restrictions in the areas of social and economic policies.
   - Liberalizing trade policy by the government includes removal of tariff, subsidies and other restrictions on the flow of goods and services between countries.

2. Explain the concept of Privatisation.
   - Privatization is the incidence or process of transferring ownership of a business enterprise, agency or public service from the government to the private sector.
   - Privatisation means permitting the private sector to set up industries which were previously reserved for the public sector.
   - Under this policy many Public Sector Units (PSUs) were sold to private sector.

3. What are advantages of disinvestment?
   (a) Increase in efficiency:
      - Privatization is associated with improved efficiency due to to reduce their costs and improve in profits.
   (b) Professional management:
      - Government owned enterprises make poor economic management compared to private owned enterprises.

   - It was all about the General Agreements on Trade and Tariff.
   - The new set of economic reforms is commonly known as the LPG or Liberalisation, Privatisation and Globalisation model.

IV. Long Answer Questions:
1. Explain the advantages and disadvantages of liberalisation.

   Advantages
   a) Increase in foreign investment:
   Inward investment leads to capital inflows but also helps the economy through diffusion of more technology, management techniques and knowledge.
   b) Increase in consumption:
   Liberalization increases the number of goods available for consumption within a country due to increase in production.
   c) Control over price:
   The removal of tariff barriers can lead to lower prices for consumers. This would be particularly a benefit for countries who are importers.

   Disadvantages
   a) Increase in unemployment:
   Some industries grow, some decline. Therefore, there may often be structural unemployment from certain industries closing.
   b) Loss to domestic units:
   With fewer entry restrictions, it has been possible for many entrants to make inroads into the country, which poses a threat and competition to the existing domestic units.
   c) Unbalanced development:
   Trade liberalisation may be damaging for developing economies which cannot compete against free trade.

2. Explain the impact of LPG on Indian Economy.
   - Introduction of new Foreign Trade Agreements
   - Foreign Investment (FDI & FII)
   - MRTP Act, 1969 (Amended)
   - Deregulation
   - Opportunities for overseas trade
   - Steps to regulate inflation
   - Tax reforms
   - Abolition of License
   - Globalization and liberalization both occur as a result of modernization.
   - Globalization is the greater integration among countries and economies for trade, economic, social and political benefits.
   - Liberalization generally refers to removal of government rules and regulations imposed on social, economic, or political matter.

5. Discuss in detail the right of an unpaid seller against the goods.

I. Rights of an unpaid seller against the good
a. Rights of lien:
An unpaid seller has a right to retain the goods till he receives the price. But to exercise this lien:
- He must be in possession of goods
- The goods must have been sold without any stipulation as to credit or where goods have been sold on credit, the term of credit must have expired.
b. Right of stoppage in Transit:
Where the seller has delivered the goods to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer, but the buyer has not acquired them, then the seller can stop the goods and regain the possession.
c. Right of Resale:
The unpaid seller can resell the goods
- Where they are of a perishable nature or
- After exercising his right of lien or stoppage in transit, even though he has given intimation to the buyer of his intention to resell, buyer has not tendered the price within a reasonable time.

II. Right of an Unpaid Seller against the Buyer Personally
i) Suite for price:
Where the ownership in the goods has passed to the buyer and the buyer refuses to pay for the goods, the seller can file case against the buyer for the price.
ii) Suite for Damage for Non-acceptance:
Where the buyer wrongfully refuses to accept the goods, the seller can sue him for damages for non-Acceptance of the goods.
iii) Suite for Cancellation of the Contract before the Due Date:
Where the buyer cancels contract before the date of delivery, the seller may either treat the contract as continuing or wait till the due date or he can file a case against buyer immediately.

UNIT-VIII CHAPTER 22
THE NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS ACT 19301

II. Very Short Answer Questions:
1. What is meant by Negotiable Instrument?
   ✴️ The word ‘Negotiable’ means transferable from one person to another in return for consideration.
   ✴️ The word ‘Instrument’ means a written document by which a right is created in favour of certain person.
2. Define Bill of Exchange
According to section 5 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, “a bill of exchange is an instrument in writing containing an unconditional order, signed by the maker, directing a certain person to pay a certain sum of money only to, or to the order of a certain person or to the bearer of the instrument”.
3. List three characteristics of a Promissory Note.
   ✦ A promissory note must be in writing.
   ✦ It must contain a promise or undertaking to pay.
   ✦ The promise to pay must be unconditional.
4. What is meant by a cheque?
A cheque is a bill of exchange drawn on a specified banker and not expressed to be payable otherwise than on demand.

5. Define Endorsement:
"When the maker or holder of a negotiable instrument signs the name, otherwise that as such maker for the purpose of negotiation, on the back or face thereof, or on a slip of paper annexed thereto or so signs for the same purpose a stamped paper intended to be completed as a negotiable instrument, he is said to endorse the same and is called the endorsee”.

III. Short Answer Questions:
1. Explain the nature of a Negotiable Instrument.
1. Transferability:
A negotiable instrument is transferable from one person to another without any formality, such as affixing stamp, registration etc.,

2. Title of the holder free from all defects:
When the instrument is held by holder in due course in the process of negotiation, it is cured of all defects in the instrument with respect to ownership.

3. Right of the transferee to use:
Though a bill, a promissory note or a cheque represents a debt, the transferee is entitled to sue on the instrument in his own name in case of dishonor, without giving notice to the debtor that he has become its holder.

2. Distinguish between Negotiability and Assignability.

5. Discuss the two different types of crossing.

1. General Crossing:
“Where a cheque bears across its face an addition of the words “and company” or any abbreviation thereof, between two parallel transverse lines or of two parallel transverse lines simply, either with or without the words “not negotiable” that addition shall be deemed to be crossed generally”.

2. Special Crossing:
“Where a cheque bears across its face an addition of the name of a banker with or without the words” not negotiable”, that addition shall be deemed a crossing and the cheque shall be deemed to be crossed specially and to be crossed to that banker”.

IV. Long Answer Questions:

1. Mention the presumption of Negotiable Instruments.

Presumption to Negotiable Instrument:
- Every negotiable instrument is presumed to have been drawn, accepted etc. for consideration.
- A negotiable is presumed to have been accepted.
- Every negotiable instrument bearing, a date is presumed to have been made on such a date.
- It is presumed to have been accepted within a reasonable time after the date and before its maturity.
- The transfer of a negotiable instrument is presumed to have been made before maturity.
- The endorsement appearing upon a negotiable instrument is presumed to have been made in the order to which they appear thereon.
- When a negotiable instrument has been lost, it is presumed to have been duly stamped.

2. Distinguish a cheque and a bill of exchange.

3. Discuss in detail the features of a cheque.

i) Instrument in Writings
- A cheque or a bill or a promissory note must be an instrument in writing.
- Though the law does not prohibit a cheque being written in pencil, bankers never accept it because of risks involved.

ii) Unconditional Orders
- The instrument must contain an order to pay money.
- It is not necessary that the word ‘order’ or its equivalent must be used to make the document a cheque.
iii) Drawn on a Specified Banker Only
   ✷ The cheque is always drawn on a specified banker.
   ✷ A cheque vitally differs from a bill in this respect as latter can be drawn on any person including a banker.

iv) A Certain Sum of Money Only
   ➢ The order must be for payment of only money.
   ➢ If the banker is asked to deliver securities, the document cannot be called a cheque.

v) Payee to be Certain
   ✷ The cheque must be made payable to a certain person or to the order of a certain person or to the bearer of the instrument.
   ✷ The word, person includes bodies corporate, local authorities, associations of an institution etc.,

vi) Signed by the Drawer
   ✷ The cheque is to be signed by the drawer.
   ✷ Further, it should tally with specimen signature furnished to the bank at the time of opening the account.

4. What are the requisites for a valid endorsement?
   ✷ Endorsement is to be made on the face of the instrument or on its back. It is usually made on the back of a negotiable instrument.
   ✷ When there is no space for making further endorsements a piece of paper can be attached to the negotiable instrument for this purpose. This piece of paper is called ‘Allonge’.
   ✷ If the endorsee’s name is wrongly spelt, the endorsee should sign the same as spelt in the instrument and write the correct spelling within brackets after his endorsement.
   ✷ Endorsement for only a part of the amount of the instrument is invalid. It can be made only for the entire amount.
   ✷ Where, however, the instrument has been partly paid, a note to that effect can be given on the instrument and endorsement made for the balance amount.
   ✷ Endorsement is complete only when delivery of the instrument is made.

5. Explain the different kinds of endorsement.

   Different kinds of endorsement:

   1. Endorsement in Blank or General Endorsement:
      When the endorser puts his mere signature on the back of an instrument without mentioning the name of a person to whom the endorsement is made, it is called Blank Endorsement or General Endorsement.

   2. Endorsement in full or special endorsement:
      Where the endorser, in addition to his signature, specifies the person to whom or to whose order the instrument is payable, the endorsement is called endorsement in full.

   3. Conditional or qualified endorsement:
      Where the endorser of a negotiable instrument makes his liability dependent upon the happening of an event which may or may not happen, it is called conditional endorsement.

   4. Restrictive Endorsement:
      When an endorsement restricts or prohibits further negotiability of the instrument, it is called Restrictive Endorsement.

   5. Facultative Endorsement:
      If the endorser waives this right by a writing “Notice of dishonour Waived” at the time of endorsing, it is called Facultative endorsement.

   6. Partial Endorsement:
      Where the endorsement seeks to transfer only a part of the amount payable under the instrument.
